

SELECTION OF DOCUMENTARY SUPPORT PROJECTS:

- 2025: 'Formula One: Drive to Survive' for Formula 8 Films. Followed the action at the Shanghai circuit.
- 2024: '90 Days Fiancé: The Other Way Round' featuring Lily and Josh for Sharp Entertainment. Filmed Lily and Josh's Chinese wedding and showed how Josh was settling into his new life in Hangzhou.
- 2023: '60 Minutes' interview of a professor in Beijing for Australia's Nine Network
- 2022: 'A 1000 Ways to Dine' for 'A+E Networks'. Featured some of the most exotic and avant-guard restaurants in China.
- 2021: '90 Days Fiancé' featuring Johnny and Ella for Sharp Entertainment. Filmed during Covid, this was a long-distance love story that managed to capture their love for each other.
- 2019: Promotional shoot of Sanya, on the island getaway of Hainan Island, for The Smalls. Featured many of the island hotspots, such as beaches and tropical forests.
- 2019: 'Life of a Ship' for Maximus. Shone the spotlight on how some of the biggest container ships in the world are made.
- 2019: 'Who Do You Think You Are' for Warner Bros Australia. A fascinating dive into the personal history of Jennifer Byrne, and her ancestor's extraordinary time in Jigongshan.

- 2018: 'Chinese Flowers' for CCTV. An exhilarating journey around the world on the hunt for flowers that originate from China, such as the magnolia and camellia, and which can now be found in gardens around the world.
- 2014: 'First People's' for Wall to Wall. Filmed ground breaking research on the origins of early man with a focus on Zhirendong man fossils found in the archaeological excavation sites in the karst landscape caves of Chongzuo, Guangxi Province.
- 2013: Youtube promotional video of Shandong Province for Across the Pond. The shoot involved a manic few days crisscrossing Shandong Province by train, taking in such cultural highlights as the Qingdao Beer Factory, Weifang Kite Museum and splendid Mount Tai.
- 2012: 'Divine Women' for BBC2. This program told the story of one of China's most influential women, Tang Dynasty Empress Wu Zetian (624-705). We retraced her considerable legacy from the imperial palace ruins in Xi'an to the enormous Buddhist statues made out in her likeness in Luoyang.
- 2011: 'Supersized Earth' for BBC1. Production was hard core and featured some of the world's biggest and most ambitious engineering programs. Locations included the world's largest aqueduct, the Shahe Aqueduct, and China's longest suspension bridge, the Nanjing Yangtze River 4th Bridge.
- 2010: 'Factory Made' for High Noon Entertainment. Production took place at factories across China's manufacturing hinterland including Shenzhen, Dongguan and Taizhou.
-